

COMMERCIAL

CAIRO, ILL., August 20, 1890.

These quotations represent prices from first hands, and all other sales higher rates have to be paid.

Our market since our last semi-weekly review has been devoid of any special interest or activity, and prices have undergone no notable changes worthy of note.

TOBACCO—The offerings were limited to 17 bids yesterday, and the bidding was quite spirited. The sales resulted as follows:

2 bids Pruning Leaves sold at $3.25 & 11.50
2 bids Long sold at 6.00 to 7.75
6 bids Common to Medium Shipping Leaf, 8.00 to 9.25
4 bids Good " 10.75 to 11.75

FLOUR has been in good demand throughout, and dealers have no accumulations of stock. Prices are without any notable change since our last semi-weekly review, except for choice family grades, which are rather easier. Sales comprise:

75 bids low Superfine..... 5.25
250 bids Superfine..... 5.50 to 5.75
255 bids choice X..... 6.25
390 bids XX..... 6.90, 6.25 to 6.50
449 bids XXX..... 6.75, 7.00 to 7.25
200 bids New XXX Family..... 7.75
142 bids choice family..... 8.50 to 8.75

WHEAT is unchanged on all grades, and our millers are taking all offerings within the range of our quotations.

BEAN is in fair demand, with sales of 20 tons in bulk at $15.00 per ton.

CORN & OATS are both scarce and in demand. 50 sacks white corn, in second hand sacks, sold at $5.00. No sales of oats reported. The last were made at $5.00.

HAY is dull with fair receipts. One car prime new sold on track at $17.00.

PROVISIONS are quiet but firm on all descriptions. Stocks here are light and stiffly held. No sales worthy of note reported.

CORN MEAL—Both receipts and shipments are light. 25 bids standard sold at $4.00 to $4.25, and 15 bids extra sold at $3.75.

BUTTER—Receipts have materially fallen off, and stocks have been considerably reduced. Prices are higher for all the better grades, with quick sales for such receipts. Sales were 10 pails southern Illinois at $2.00, and 10 pails Northern, choice at $2.00.

EGGS are unchanged with good demand for strictly fresh. 10 pails sold at $1.00.

POULTRY—Receipts are extremely light, with good demand for spring chickens at $2.00 to $2.50 and 60 for large, and old chickens at $1.00 to $1.50.

VEGETABLES are without quotable change and abundant. We have large receipts by wagon from the surrounding country. 6 bids onions sold at $2.75 and potatoes are selling at $2.00 per bush in bulk.

FRUITS—Peaches are more plenty and lower. 150 boxes sold at $25.00, and 10 bids apples at $1.00 to $1.25.

FREIGHTS—Cairo being now practically at the head of navigation for large boats, freights are in active demand by all shippers, being anxious to fill out here, from whence they can take full cargoes. Some concessions are being made from our quotations on round lots, but for all others these rates are obtained.
